

FRIENDSHIP EVENING

We spent the evening together with all the members of the Prato-Wangen-Ebensee twinning group. At the beginning, the mayors of the two cities gave a speech in which they congratulated the boys on their efforts and were pleased with everything that had been organised.

Afterwards, there was a joint meal with live music played by a traditional local band. After the meal, all the works of the different groups that had been created in the workshops were presented.

