

BOAT TOUR

Before the boat trip started, all the students from the three cities gathered to wait for the boat. In the meantime, the German and Italian students formed small mixed groups to have a friendly chat.

When it started to rain during the boat trip, a band that was on board played the song "Bella Ciao". We sang along with the band.

As we continued our journey, we admired the beautiful scenery around us and the peaceful silence.

